The Grand Jury charges:

INTRODUCTION

At all times relevant to this Indictment:

1. The Federal Emergency Management Agency ("FEMA") is an agency of the United States Department of Homeland Security. FEMA's responsibilities include, among other things, providing disaster assistance to individuals in areas which have been declared a major disaster.

2. On August 29, 2005, Hurricane Katrina made landfall in the Gulf Coast Region of the United States. On that date, the President of the United States declared that a major disaster existed in portions of Alabama, Louisiana, and Mississippi. As a result of that declaration, people in the affected areas were eligible to apply for disaster assistance from FEMA.

3. On September 24, 2005, Hurricane Rita made landfall near the Louisiana-Texas border. On that date, the President of the United States declared that a major disaster existed in portions of Louisiana and Texas. As a result of that declaration, people in the affected areas were eligible to apply for disaster assistance from FEMA.

4. Different forms of disaster assistance were made available by FEMA for those people located in the affected areas. Because many people were displaced by Hurricanes Katrina and Rita, FEMA provided a streamlined process for victims to receive expedited assistance in the form of a $2,000 disbursement. FEMA later provided rental assistance of up to $2,358, along with other forms monetary assistance to those who qualified.

5. To obtain such assistance, a person could apply by calling a toll-free telephone number for FEMA, by sending an application over the Internet, or by applying in person. Each applicant for expedited assistance was asked to provide their name, social security number, current and pre-disaster addresses, and telephone numbers, among other things. If approved, an applicant could choose whether to receive their FEMA disaster assistance by a check that would be mailed to an address selected by the applicant or by a wire transfer that would be sent to a bank account selected by the applicant.

6. The only people entitled to receive disaster assistance from FEMA for Hurricanes Katrina or Rita were those people whose primary residence was located in one of the areas that was designated as being affected adversely by one of those declared major disasters. At no time was any county in the Middle District of Alabama included in the areas of the country for which residence were eligible to obtain disaster assistance from FEMA for Hurricanes Katrina or Rita.

7. The defendants, Bernetta Lashay Willis, Crystal Denise Phillips, Laura Lee Phillips, and Litasha Washington each resided within the Middle District of Alabama. None lived in any of the areas of the country for which residents were eligible to obtain disaster assistance from FEMA for Hurricanes Katrina or Rita.

8. Additionally, each of the defendants are or were either blood relations or a co-habitat with Willis: Laura Phillips is Willis's aunt; Crystal Phillips is Willis's cousin; and Washington was Willis's co-habitant.

COUNT 1 – CONSPIRACY

9. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 8 of this Indictment are hereby realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

THE CONSPIRACY AND ITS OBJECTS

10. From on or about September 5, 2005, and continuing until on or about January 20, 2006, the exact days being unknown to the Grand Jury, in the Middle District of Alabama and elsewhere, the defendants,

BERNETTA LASHAY WILLIS,
CRYSTAL DENISE PHILLIPS,
LAURA LEE PHILLIPS, and LITASHA WASHINGTON,

did combine, conspire, confederate, and agree among themselves and each other, and other persons both known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to make and present, and cause to be made and presented, to a department and agency of the United States, claims upon and against the United States, and agency thereof, knowing such claims to be false, fictitious, and fraudulent, contrary to Title 18, United States Code, Sections 287 and 2.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

11. It was part of the conspiracy that Crystal Phillips, Laura Phillips, and Washington, along with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, would, with the assistance of Willis, file false claims in order to defraud FEMA from funds intended for Hurricane Katrina victims and for which they were not entitled. Nearly all of the addresses claimed came from the same street—Whitney Avenue in Harvey, Louisiana—on which an unindicted co-conspirator lived prior to Hurricane Katrina. In applying for aid, the defendants would often use the social security numbers of others or non-existent social security numbers.

OVERT ACTS

12. In order to effect the object of the conspiracy, Willis, Crystal Phillips, Laura Phillips, and Washington, along with other persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, did a number of overt acts in the Middle District, including:

13. On or about September, 2005, the exact date being unknown to the Grand Jury, Crystal Phillips requested personal information from an unindicted co-conspirator for a fraudulent FEMA claim. Willis later filed that claim on behalf of the same unindicted co-conspirator. That claim was filed using Whitney Avenue in Harvey, Louisiana as the damaged street address.

14. On or about September, 2005, the exact date being unknown to the Grand Jury, Willis and Crystal Phillips assisted an unindicted co-conspirator to create and provide false documents to support a false FEMA claim.

15. On or about September, 2005, the exact date being unknown to the Grand Jury, Willis provided Washington with a doctored lease agreement to support a false FEMA claim. Willis previously provided a nearly identical lease agreement to justify a false claim to agents of the Department of Homeland Security. The lease was for an apartment complex on Whitney Avenue in Harvey, Louisiana.

16. On or about January 14, 2006, the exact date being unknown to the Grand Jury, Washington provided Willis a FEMA check in the amount $14,116.05 in Washington's name to be deposited into Willis's account. The check came from a FEMA claim which was filed using a Whitney Avenue, Harvey, Louisiana address as the damaged street address.

17. On or about September 18, 2005, Laura Phillips provided information to Willis so that Willis could file a false claim in Laura Phillips's name. That claim was filed using a Whitney Avenue, Harvey, Louisiana as the damaged street address and city. Later, Willis and Laura Phillips traveled to a check cashing store, where Washington and Willis had previously cashed checks.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

COUNTS 2-6 – THEFT OF GOVERNMENT PROPERTY

18. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 17 of this Indictment are hereby realleged and incorporated herein by reference.

Washington; the other in the name Litasha L. Washington. The claims falsely represented that Washington had suffered losses to a property she rented as her primary residence on Whitney Avenue in Harvey, Louisiana. In fact, Washington resided with Willis in Montgomery, Alabama, did not reside in Louisiana, and did not suffer the losses claimed. At least two of the claims were directly deposited into Willis’s bank accounts.
